From the entry of the new Nattu Kaka to the exit of 'Tarak Mehta' aka Shailesh Lodha from the show, everything's at another whole pace. Well, a few weeks ago it was reported that Raj Anadkat too is planning to exit the show. While many remained too calm thinking it was just some reports, it looks like it's all true. The one to finally break the silence on this is none other than TMKOC's Bhide aka 'Mandar Chandwadkar'. Read on to know more. After Shailesh Lodha leaves the sitcom, Taarak Mehta Ka Ooltah Chashmah, fans are worried about the next actor/actress exiting from the show. Recently speculations are arriving that Raj Anadkat, who plays the ever hilarious role of Tappu, is going to be the next individual to leave the show. While the actor is not seen on screen for a couple of episodes, fans and even his co-stars are worried if he is going to come back or not. Talking about the same, recently Taarak Mehta Ka Ooltah Chashmah's Mandar Chandwadkar, who plays the role of Bhide in the sitcom, was seen in a conversation with the media outlet Pinkvilla. While claiming that the news of his departure from the show is not confirmed, Mandar stated that Raj Anadkat has not arrived on sets for shoots for quite some time. He said, "As artists, we don't know if he has quit the show but he had some health issues due to which he hasn't been shooting for the past few days. I haven't seen him on the set." Meanwhile, after a long nine months wait, producer Asit Kumar Modi recently announced a new Nattu Kaka who will be carrying the legacy of late actor Ghanshyam Nayak. What are your thoughts on reports on Raj Anadkat's exit from Taarak Mehta Ka Ooltah Chashmah? Let us know them in the comments below. For more updates make sure to follow Koimoi! But before that, both the films are making noise for unwanted reasons. Yes, we're talking about the hoopla of the boycott trend. Aamir's film is facing more heat amongst two on social media and now, the actor has opened up about the same. Ever since the countdown for LSC has begun, the boycott trend has become more severe as old controversial statements of Aamir and Kareena Kapoor Khan are going viral. Amid such negativity, Aamir and the team are trying their best to promote their ambitious film as much as possible. He even reacted to the ongoing boycott trend against his film. During the media interaction, Aamir Khan reacted to boycott Laal Singh Chaddha trend. He said, "I am just keeping my fingers crossed and praying to the almighty and I am having faith in my audience." He further said, "Agar maine kisi ka dil dukhaya hai kisi cheez se toh mujhe us baat ka dukh hai aur mujhe maaf karna" (If I have hurt someone's heart with something, then I am sorry for that). I respect those who don't want to watch the film but I want more people to watch it." Helmed by Advait Chandan, Laal Singh Chaddha releases on 11th August. It also stars Kareena Kapoor Khan, Mona Singh and Naga Chaitanya in key roles. Meanwhile, during a recent promotional event, Aamir Khan revealed having sleepless nights ahead of Laal Singh Chaddha's release. He said, "I am very nervous right now. It's been 48 hours and I have not slept. I am not joking, I am not able to sleep." Stay tuned to Koimoi for more.
